

Mrs Campbell's holiday homework

December 2016

Dear parents,

Thank you all so much for your generous gifts and beautiful cards this Christmas. I really do appreciate every single one.

This Christmas we are thinking about how we are one big family in our world. For holiday homework, I would like you to think about this BIG question...

“How is Christmas celebrated around the world?”

You can respond to this however you want, either by;

- Finding out how to say Merry Christmas in as many different languages as you can
- writing a prayer,
- making a poster,
- drawing your own Christmas card,
- a booklet,
- a storyboard or playscript,
- a Powerpoint presentation using ICT.

There will be great prizes for the winners on Friday 13th January 2017, all parents are welcome to attend. In the new year, parents are also invited to attend our Monday Meditations, every Monday from 9.00am, if you would like a nice peaceful start to your week!

REMINDER: We break up on Thursday 22nd December at 1.30pm and start school again on Monday 9th January 2017 at 8.55am.

I hope that you all have a happy and peaceful Christmas with your families, God bless, Mrs Campbell
